

On Friday, March 20, 2020, the second day of Spring, Dolores Jane Berry passed away. Dolores was born in Sullivan County Missouri on May 1, 1936. Her parents were Lowell and Neva Irelan who preceded her in death. Her parents raised her on a dairy farm in Green City, Missouri in a Christian home and that is where her love for country life and close family began.

Dolores went to school near Green City Missouri where she learned to love reading and writing. As a child she wrote poetry and stories. Dolores was artistic and had many hobbies throughout her life. She loved drawing, horseback riding and all animals. She trained and showed horses for many years and had a wall full of first-place ribbons. She also trained and showed dogs, a hobby she especially loved. She took in many stray dogs and cats throughout her life and had a love for anyone or anything that needed a home. In her later years, she learned to develop websites and enjoyed sharing her skills with anyone who would ask.

Dolores was a member of the Hartford Baptist Church and a devoted Christian throughout her life. She was a dedicated mother to her children and a devoted wife. She was always cooking for her family and created many original dishes that are still being replicated and enjoyed. She was an amazing seamstress and sewed for the whole family. You would see her work each Easter Sunday as the girls all wore pretty dresses and the boys matching shirts to church. She gave to her family in every way she could. She was a devoted daughter to her mother as there was never one morning that they didn't call each other to start the day. Dolores and her sister were very close and also spoke on the daily.

Dolores is survived by her husband of 60 years, John David Berry. They were married January 25, 1960 and together built a loving home and family. She is also survived by her sister and brother-in-law Karen and Lanny Crawford and her sister Kendra Stuppy. Dolores is survived by her five children, Diana Rodgers, Teresa Casey, John Summers, Cheryl Tucker and Kevin Berry and two stepdaughters, Lisa Cassidy and Tina Berry. She was preceded in death by her stepson Jeffery Berry. Dolores was a grandmother to 12 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered.

On Friday, March 20, 2020, the second day of Spring, Dolores Jane Berry passed away. Dolores was born in Sullivan County Missouri on May 1, 1936. Her parents were Lowell and Neva Irelan who preceded her in death. Her parents raised her on a dairy farm in Green City, Missouri in a Christian home and that is where her love for country life and close family began.

Dolores went to school near Green City Missouri where she learned to love reading and writing. As a child she wrote poetry and stories. Dolores was artistic and had many hobbies throughout her life. She loved drawing, horseback riding and all animals. She trained and showed horses for many years and had a wall full of first-place ribbons. She also trained and showed dogs, a hobby she especially loved. She took in many stray dogs and cats throughout her life and had a love for anyone or anything that needed a home. In her later years, she learned to develop websites and enjoyed sharing her skills with anyone who would ask.

Dolores was a member of the Hartford Baptist Church and a devoted Christian throughout her life. She was a dedicated mother to her children and a devoted wife. She was always cooking for her family and created many original dishes that are still being replicated and enjoyed. She was an amazing seamstress and sewed for the whole family. You would see her work each Easter Sunday as the girls all wore pretty dresses and the boys matching shirts to church. She gave to her family in every way she could. She was a devoted daughter to her mother as there was never one morning that they didn't call each other to start the day. Dolores and her sister were very close and also spoke on the daily.

Dolores is survived by her husband of 60 years, John David Berry. They were married January 25, 1960 and together built a loving home and family. She is also survived by her sister and brother-in-law Karen and Lanny Crawford and her sister Kendra Stuppy. Dolores is survived by her five children, Diana Rodgers, Teresa Casey, John Summers, Cheryl Tucker and Kevin Berry and two stepdaughters, Lisa Cassidy and Tina Berry. She was preceded in death by her stepson Jeffery Berry. Dolores was a grandmother to 12 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered.

IN MEMORY OF Dolores Jane Berry

DATE OF BIRTH
May 1st, 1936

DATE OF DEATH
March 20th, 2020

SERVICE LOCATION
Hartford Baptist Church

OFFICIANT
Jeff Harlan

INTERMENT LOCATION
Union Cemetery
Unionville, Missouri

IN MEMORY OF
Dolores Jane Berry

DATE OF BIRTH
May 1st, 1936

DATE OF DEATH
March 20th, 2020

SERVICE LOCATION
Hartford Baptist Church

OFFICIANT
Jeff Harlan

INTERMENT LOCATION
Union Cemetery
Unionville, Missouri

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways...
Of happy times, & laughing times,
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the Sun,
Of happy memories that I leave behind
when day is done.

A SIMPLIFIED
Funeral Solution

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways...
Of happy times, & laughing times,
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the Sun,
Of happy memories that I leave behind
when day is done.

A SIMPLIFIED
Funeral Solution